

Steps to become a scheme participant

Logistics Meat, Meat products and Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes

Please note:

- The scope of the QS Guideline Logistics Meat, Meat products and Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes applies to all logistics companies that exclusively transport, and/or store and if necessary, do the order picking of packaged or unpackaged meat, meat products and/or fresh, prepared and/or processed fruit, vegetables, potatoes without becoming the owner of the products.
- In addition, the scope of logistics meat and meat products covers the following processes: repalletising, tumbling (inverting), freezing and thawing

Please note:

- For companies that participate via a QS certification or a certificate recognized by QS for the scope logistics this means:
 - QS goods may only be transported, stored and, if necessary, picked.
 - QS meat and meat products may also be repalletised, inverted, frozen and defrosted
 - The trading with QS goods or the further handling of QS goods (e.g. washing, packing) is not covered by the recognition.
 - Companies that market QS goods be certified according to the QS Guideline Meat Wholesale or the Guideline Wholesale Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes.

Scope – subcontractor transport

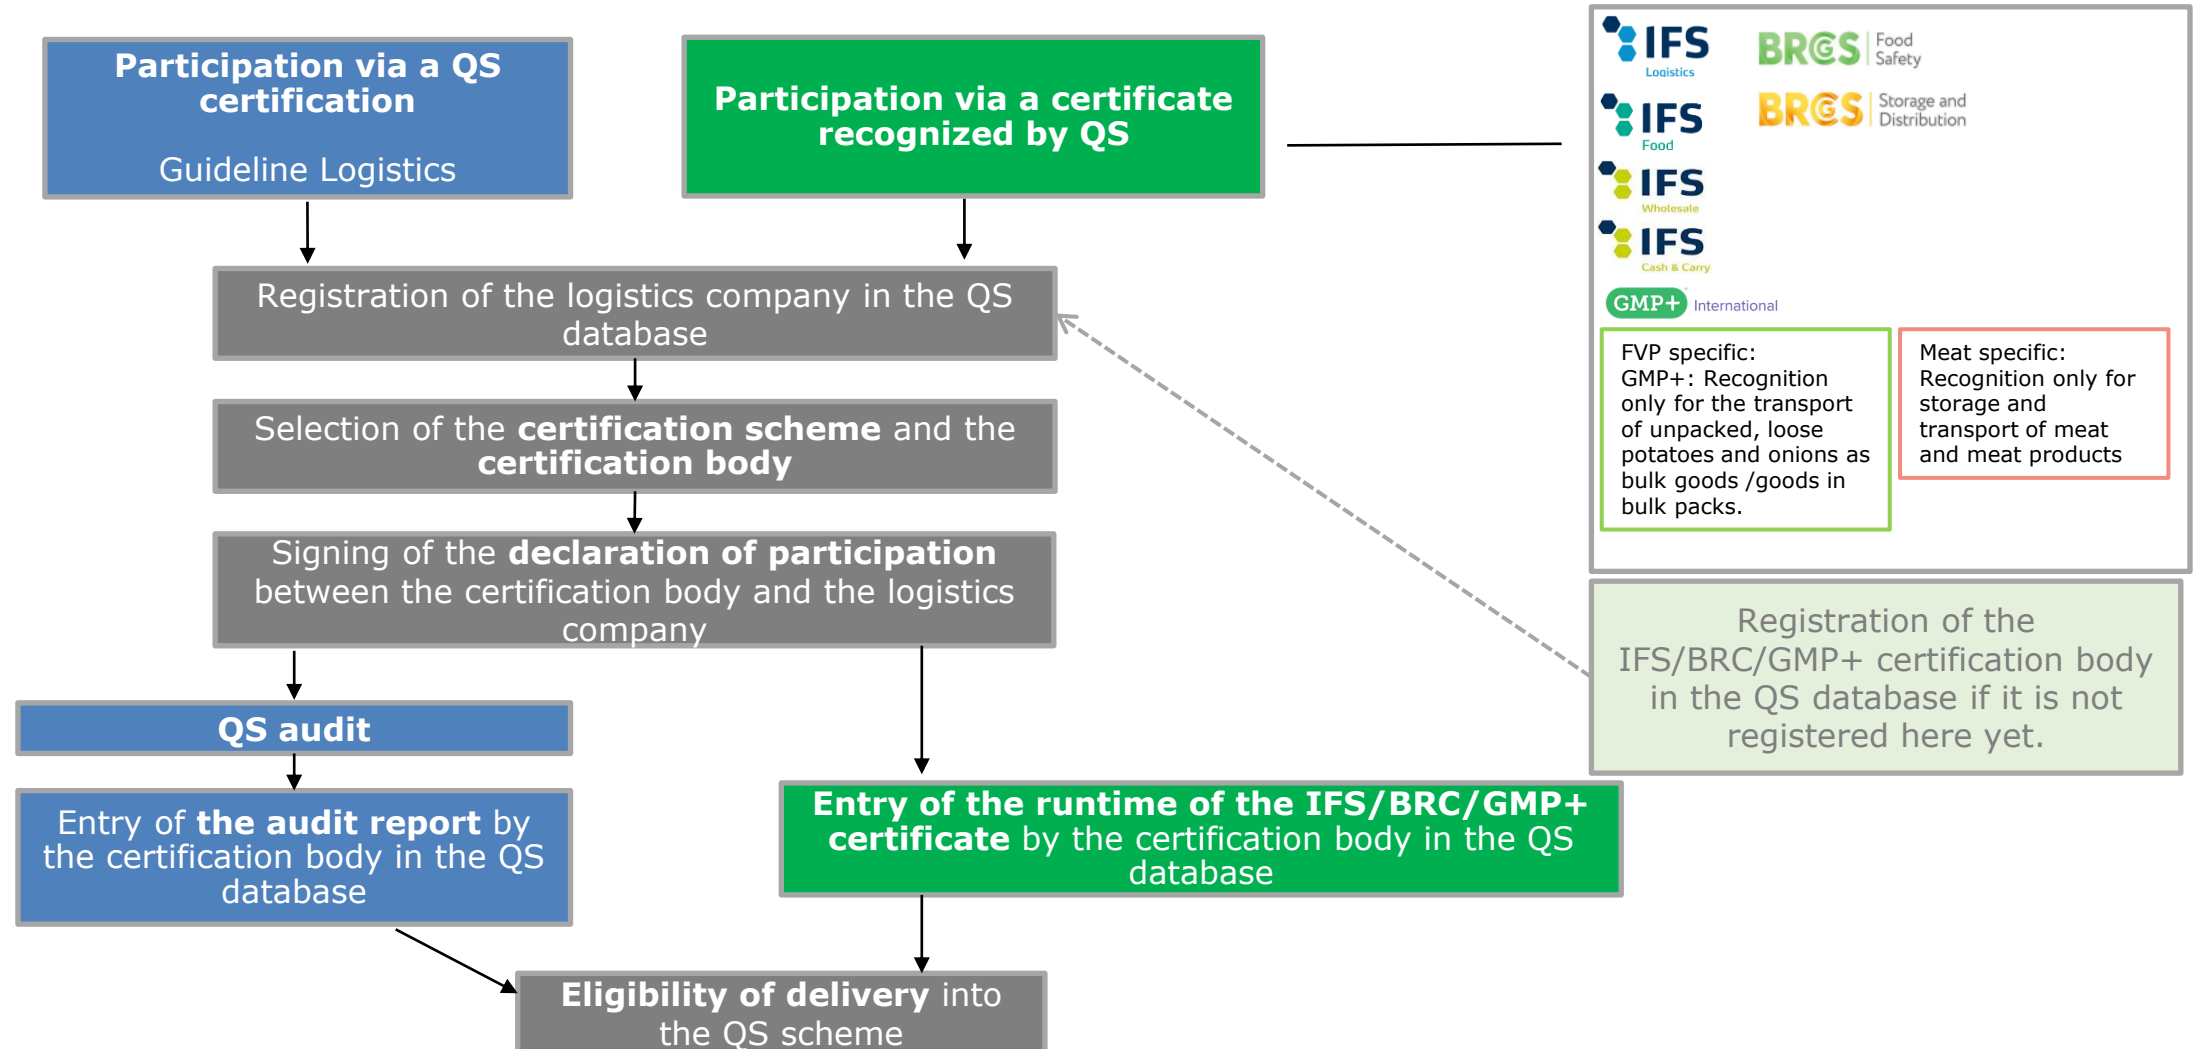

- Subcontractors who carry out transport activities of QS goods on subcontract for a scheme participant must always participate in the QS scheme (either via QS certification or participation via a certificate that is acknowledged by QS).
- For subcontractors of transport, the relevant requirements of the transport apply (cf. „Scope – Delimitations“).
- The subcontractor receives a general eligibility of delivery into the QS scheme.

Scope – subcontractor transport

- A QS participation is not required if:
- the respective transport service provider is commissioned sporadically with a maximum of 12 individual orders per calendar year. – In this case, the client must oblige the logistics subcontractors to comply with the QS requirements (⇒ Guideline Logistics Meat and Meat products and Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes, Chapters 2.3, 3, 5) as part of the contract. The implementation of the requirements by the contracted logistics subcontractors must be ensured by means of evidence and checked on a random basis as part of the customers self-monitoring. In addition, the customer must require the commissioned logistics company to allow inspections by the customers certification body and/or by QS in individual cases.
 - If Personnel services of a subcontractor are used, in terms of drivers (if necessary with tractors but with trailers of the QS scheme participant)
- The regulations on sporadic commissioning and personnel services also apply to scheme participants participating via a recognised standard (IFS, BRC).

Registration in the QS database

Participation according to QS-standard (Guideline logistics)

- If you want to participate via a QS Logistics certification, choose the certification scheme "QS" in the intermediate step between step 5

Certification scheme	QS	▼
----------------------	----	---

- IMPORTANT: Please select the production scope that corresponds to your processes when entering the location data (step 6)

(901)	Transport Meat, Meat products and/or Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes
(902)	Storage Meat, Meat products and/or Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes
(903)	Storage and Transport Meat, Meat products and/or Fruit, Vegetables, Potatoes

- Please choose a certification body that performs the logistic audit.
- A list of the certification bodies currently approved by QS can be found here.

(Note: Below the map you can filter by supply chain and stage. A list of all possible certification bodies follows. Depending on your requirements, filter for certification bodies authorised for the stage "meat wholesale", or stage "wholesale/logistics for fruit, vegetables and potatoes".)

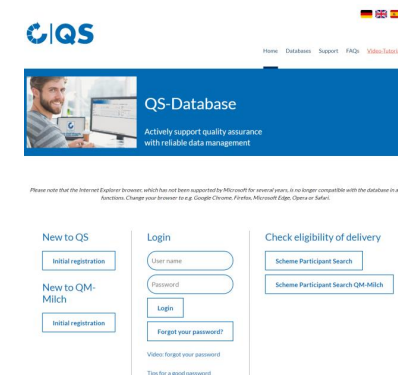

- For initial registrations, we recommend to contact the certification body in advance to discuss terms and conditions for scheme participation.
- After finishing the registration process, a confirmation mail with the login data (QS-ID and password) will be sent to the mail address of the legal representative.
- With these login data (QS-ID = User-ID) you can log in into our database.

Eligibility of delivery into the QS scheme

Participation according to QS-standard (guideline logistics)

- The chosen certification body will be informed automatically about your registration and will contact you. But if you prefer, you can contact them first to plan the audit in your company.
- Your certification body will send you a declaration of participation, which has to be signed and send back to the certification body by you.
- The certification body performs the audit on an agreed date and enters the results (audit report) in the QS database.
- As soon as the audit report will be released by the certification body and cross-checked by QS, you will receive the eligibility of delivery into the QS scheme.
- With the eligibility of delivery your company appears in the scheme participant search of QS.
- Your certification body will also automatically receive a feedback on the eligibility for delivery so that they can issue the QS certificate to your company.

Registration in the QS database

Participation based on an IFS or GMP+ certification

- If you want to participate via your IFS certificate (Logistics, Food, Cash&Carry/ Wholesale) or GMP+ certificate (scope road transport), please choose the respective certification scheme during the registration process (in the intermediate step between step 5 and 6). You will then be asked to enter the registration number of your certificate.
- In step 6, please select the certification body that performed the IFS/GMP+ certification.
- If the certification body is not registered in the QS database, yet, the certification body need to contact QS, first.
- After completing the new registration, an automatic e-mail with your login data (QS-ID and password) will be sent to the e-mail address of your legal representative.
- With these login data (QS-ID = User-ID) you can now log in to the database.

Eligibility of delivery into the QS scheme

Participation based on an IFS or GMP+ Certification

- The chosen certification body will be informed automatically about your registration. However, you can also contact the certification body yourself.
- Your certification body will send you a declaration of participation, which has to be signed and send back to the certification body by you.
- As soon as the certification body enters the certificate runtime of the IFS/GMP+ certificate in the QS database you will receive the eligibility of delivery into the QS scheme.
- With the eligibility of delivery your company appears in the scheme participant search of QS.

The screenshot shows the QS-Database website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the QS logo and links for Home, Databases, Support, FAQs, and Video-Tutorials. Below the navigation bar, there is a hero section with a blue background and a white text box that says 'QS-Database' and 'Actively support quality assurance with reliable data management'. Below this, there is a disclaimer about Internet Explorer compatibility. The main content area is divided into three columns. The first column is for 'New to QS' and 'New to QM-Milch', both with 'Initial registration' buttons. The second column is for 'Login', with fields for 'User name' and 'Password', a 'Login' button, and a 'Forgot your password?' button. The third column is for 'Check eligibility of delivery', with a 'Scheme Participant Search' button and a 'Scheme Participant Search QM-Milch' button. A green arrow points to the 'Check eligibility of delivery' link.

If you have further questions about the individual steps, please contact the QS office or the technical support!

We will be glad to help you!
